David:

I enjoyed you guys coming out. As you know, the OSCs work extremely hard every day on the most demanding and stressful cleanups in the Nation while also keeping stakeholders informed of our actions. I hope that I was able to convey the level of commitment OSCs have to helping all communities especially the environmental justice communities that struggle with getting appropriate actions taken to address their environmental concerns.

Thanks

Gary,

Again - Thanks a million for showing Ron and me around the site. Also for the introduction with (b) (6) We learned a lot and hopefully didn't distract you from your important work too much.
